Lemkin, who coined the word "genocide" and worked on the UN Convention on Genocide, asserts that events in Ukraine in the early 1930s were "the classic example of Soviet genocide." He concludes: "This is not simply a case of mass murder. It is a case of genocide, of the destruction, not of individuals only, but of a culture and a nation." www.education.holodomor.ca/teaching-materials/role-of-lemkin/
